JETS JUST FOR A DAY

Congratulations to Mr C and our little Jets on a fantastic and successful day. Not only were our year 3, 4 and 5 students great on the soccer field they also were great spectators for the other schools. One parent commented to Mr C how well behaved and nice our students were. Congratulations.

I also wish to thank Ebony, Bailey and Angel for refereeing on the day. They showed great leadership from this fantastic opportunity.

STAFF PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT IMPROVES OUTCOMES

Two weeks ago Mrs Pohl had a great opportunity in attending a course about reading strategies and better reading groups. This course has helped to develop new and exciting ways in which reading groups are done in our early years. Mrs Pohl said she was excited about her new group structures and is looking forward to implementing them with Mrs Boeree and Miss Stubberfield.

BOOK WEEK DRESS UP DAY

Don't forget that Tuesday is our book week dress up parade. This is always a great morning. The parade starts at 10:30am followed by a light morning tea for parents, guests and students.

We have some Book Fair vouchers to give away to each class as prizes for the Book Week Parade.

BOOK FAIR

Our annual book fair will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday this week. We have a great selection of books available for purchase for home or if you would like to donate one to the school that would be appreciated. Students will be having a sneak preview this afternoon.

HATS

From the 1st September (Spring) ALL students will be required to wear a wide brimmed hat whilst playing at school. Parents can choose 1 of three options. TPS Legionaries' (until stock runs out), the new navy blue bucket hats (with toggle) $6 from the school, or parents can buy the navy blue, broad brim hats from Best and Less. We are getting very strict on the hats at school. It is important that students have the appropriate hat, in line with the NSW DEC Sun Safe policy.
